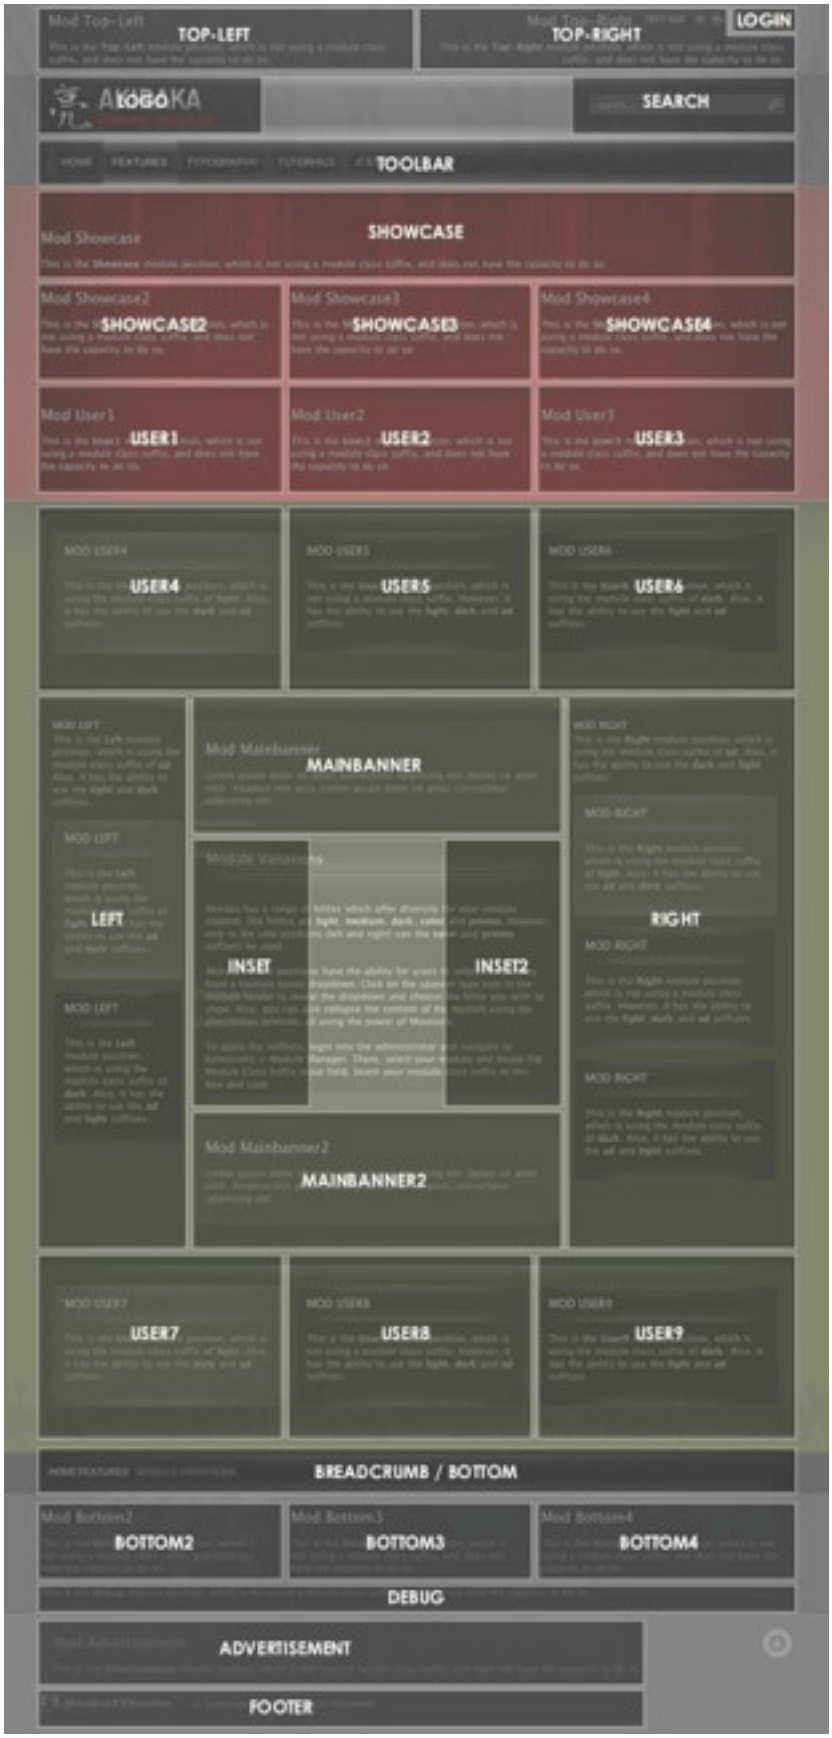
Module Positions

Akiraka has been constructed with an assortment of 32 module positions allowing for versatility and flexibility. Most of these module positions are fully collapsible meaning that if there are no modules published in particular area, that module area will not be shown.


Several of these positions may not appear to be positions, such as the Logo, Footer and Toolbar. However, by publishing modules to see positions, the elements are automatically disabled and replaced by your module content.